THE GAZETTE.

TUESDAY EVENING, OCTOBER 23.

The Quebec papers are occupied with details of the great fire in that city. The fire originated in the criminal carelessness attendant upon carousing for into the night. It broke out in a house in St. Joseph street, facing the western angle of the Jacques Cartier Market Hall, the upper part of which was occupied by a man named Letarte, and the lower one by Trudel, a sort of half groggery, where numbers of low characters were in the habit of resorting and card-playing. On Saturday night a number of them had congregated there, and, notwith. them had congregated there, and, notwithstanding the civic regulation for the closing of such places at midnight, Trudel allowed them to continue their carouse far into the morning. There is but little doubt, therefore, that the awful calamity owed its origin to drunken care-
